Hi Shubham,

Exception for July is not possible had mentioned this earlier as well. You can apply leave in July and LWP from AUG'25 onwards.

Hi Shubham,

Please confirm your availability as I don't see you being available from yesterday. Accordingly, we need to have a replacement.

@K K, Pracil - Please help conclude the thread as we need clarity on his availability.

Regards,
Dharmendra

Hi Samiksha,

I've always ensured clarity and kept matters distinct, with my intentions being clear from the outset. I mentioned my project work in this context because the discussion around applying leaves for July came up, and I wanted to emphasize that I was actively engaged in a billable project throughout the month.

Shubham Chaturvedi.

Hi Shubham,

Let's not mix 2 things. We are not at all questioning your commitment towards project. However BTO compliance is all together a separate topic.

We should understand that we need to adhere to the organisational policies and raise for issues in timely manner .

It is completely individuals call how to manage the BTO compliance but generally taking any last-minute surprises into consideration everyone plans from the start of the month to complete the days as per BTO.

All BTO compliances and exceptions are driven by tool and there is no way exceptions can be taken in any other form.(past dated/manual etc.) and hence the policy also says either 3 days a week or 12 days a month leaving it upto individuals intelligence to track it.

Samiksha

Hi Samiksha,

Thanks for your response. I completely agree that exceptions should be raised in a timely manner.

I had planned to fulfil the WFO days during the last two weeks of July. However, due to unavoidable circumstances (as previously communicated), I was unable to attend office and had to raise the exemption request accordingly. Despite this, I worked consistently throughout the month, contributing fully to the project and ensuring billability was maintained.

Hi Shubham,

Your request for WFO was sent on 23 Jul by you . I hope you understand that couple of days is needed for discussion with leadership and ahead . Pracil came back to you with a response in 3 working days .

Hope you understand that exceptions need to be discussed in time .

@Gupta, Hariom please see how you want to take it up.

Regards
Samiksha

Hi Pracil,

At-least that can be managed by the mgt one month exception could be marked, no ? Because worked for a project and applying for leaves also doesn't make sense.

Hi Pracil,

I was billable and actively working on the Walmart-TSI project throughout July. However, I couldn't attend office due to the reason previously explained.

I do have 7 PL's available in my bucket which I can apply for August month.

Shubham Chaturvedi.

Hi Shubham,

Management has not approved your long term WFO Exemption request and advised to take long leaves so that you can take care well and when things have improved you can join back.

Please plan and let me know.

Pracil

Subject: Request for WFO Exception

Hi Dharmendra/Pracil,

I'm writing to request a work-from-office exception for the next 4–5 months (including the current month) due to ongoing personal circumstances. As previously communicated and documented, my wife's health continues to require my attention at home, and the current situation we are in remains unchanged.

We have already taken steps to ensure that this exception will not be needed beyond the mentioned period.

Given this, I may not be able to attend office regularly during this time. However, I remain fully committed to my responsibilities and will ensure that my work continues without disruption. I'm also available to come to the office for a few days each month, as needed, based on project requirements.

Thank you for your understanding and continued support. Please let me know if any further clarification is needed.

Warm regards,
Shubham Chaturvedi
